

Albany County Cares about our businesses October 14, 2017

Name: Albany County Cares about our businesses

Location: Crossgates Mall, Lower Level near Lucky Strike Social, Guilderland

Time: 10am-3pm (vendors may start setting up at 9am and must break down by 3pm)

Date: Saturday, October 14, 2017

Summary: Albany County Cares about our businesses is an opportunity for residents from the Capital District to learn about businesses and local non-profits who represent the diversity that Albany County has to offer. Previous vendors have included unique Capital Region businesses that are living “green” and working hard to reduce their carbon footprint. The event will be jointly-hosted with Crossgates Mall. This event is free for vendors and the public. See below for vendor registration deadlines. Space is limited. Food vendors who are not located in Crossgates Mall are not permitted to register for this event. Electricity needs will be met on a first come, first served basis.

REGISTRATION FORM:

In order to participate, vendors must complete registration forms and submit event insurance certificates either by email to mary.rozak@albanycountyny.gov or send by regular mail. Forms sent via mail should be submitted to:

Albany County Executive's Office
Attn: Mary Rozak
112 State Street, Suite 900
Albany, NY 12207

First Name

Last Name

Phone Number

Email

Business Name

Business Address

Type of Business

Need Electric?

A limited number of tables are available (1) eight foot table per vendor. They will be covered with a black fitted tablecloth. 2 chairs will also be provided. Please indicate if you need a table or if you are bringing your own.

Disclaimer: I understand that vendors are located in Albany County or a surrounding county in the Capital Region. I understand that if the eligibility requirements to participate are not met, I will be unable to participate in the event. By signing this registration form, I am acknowledging this disclaimer.

Signature

Date